Multi-systemic Therapy Treatment Program

- Multi-systemic Therapy (MST) is an intensive family and community based treatment service that addresses multiple aspects of serious behavior adolescents.
- The multi-systemic approach views an individual's behavior as being influenced by the system around them- family, peers, school, neighborhood, as well as by the individual's thoughts and feelings about that system.
- MST interventions address the many factors that are known to contribute to delinquency where the youth lives, works and plays. Therapists work with parents/caregivers to impact and provide support in school, youth, peer, and community settings for 4-6 months. Contact can be daily at the outset, with families receiving 2-3 sessions per week on average. Therapist are available around the clock for emergencies and support. These family interventions promote positive family relationships and development of skills to impact adolescents' risky and acting-out behaviors as well as enhance the parent's capacity to monitor and manage the adolescent.

When working with children, I utilize child-centered play therapy techniques and adjust my approach depending on the child's development and needs. While adults are comfortable communicating verbally, children use the language of play to express the themes in their lives. Through play, children are able to communicate about issues that are troubling them and can learn ways to share feelings and thoughts. Parents or caretakers are asked to provide weekly input and to be part of the process. Over the last 25 years I have worked with adults, teens and children living through many difficult circumstances. I offer a safe and nurturing place to explore situations or problems that are causing you distress. Through therapy, you can connect with your inner strengths, identify your needs and priorities and take steps to greater peace and satisfaction. Many of my clients have been addressing depression, anxiety, life changes, unresolved issues of the past, relationships and trauma. Some people use therapy not to problem solve but to find ways to have more joy, greater well-being or to gain a clear direction towards the future.

Multi-systemic Therapy Treatment Program:

- Multi-systemic Therapy (MST) is an intensive family and community based treatment service that addresses multiple aspects of serious behavior adolescents.
- The multi-systemic approach views an individual's behavior as being influenced by the systems around them- family, peers, school, neighborhood, as well as by the individual's thoughts and feelings about that system.
- MST interventions address the many factors that are known to contribute to delinquency where the youth lives, works and plays. Therapists work with parents/care-givers to impact and provide support in school, youth, peer, and community settings for 4-6 months. Contact can be daily at the outset, with families receiving 2-3 sessions per week on average. Therapists are available around the clock for emergencies and support. These family interventions promote positive family relationships and development of skills to impact adolescents' risky and acting-out behaviors, as well as enhance the parent's capacity to monitor and manage the adolescent.

When working with children, I utilize child-centered play therapy techniques and adjust my approach depending on the child's development and needs. While adults are comfortable communicating verbally, children use the language of play to express the themes in their lives. Through play, children are able to communicate about issues that are troubling them and can learn ways to share feelings and thoughts. Parents or caretakers are asked to provide weekly input and to be part of the process. Over the last 25 years I have worked with adults, teens and children living through many difficult circumstances. I offer a safe and nurturing place to explore situations or problems that are causing you distress. Through therapy, you can connect with your inner strengths, identify your needs and priorities and take steps to greater peace and satisfaction. Many of my clients have been addressing depression, anxiety, life changes, unresolved issues of the past, relationships and trauma. Some people use therapy not to problem solve but to find ways to have more joy, greater well-being or to gain a clear direction towards the future.

Services: no cost or subsidized health insurance for children ages 0 until 19. Serves Lehigh and Northampton Counties. Coverage includes medical, dental, prescription and vision care.

Requirements: child has no health insurance, no medical assistance and not eligible for MA

NOTE: Head Start and Early Head Start has applications for CHIP. Ask your Head Start staff person.

Healthy Beginnings

State funded payment program for medical services to children 0 to 18 years of age with or without medical coverage; prenatal/postnatal care for mothers. Based on income; must apply. They'll send you an application; must be citizen/resident alien. Call 888-402-LVHN (5846)

Medical Assistance

The Medical Assistance Program (Access) is now a managed care system called "Health Choices." To apply for Medical Assistance (Access) for yourself and/or your family, you must visit or call the County Assistance Office (Welfare Office). For Lehigh County residents, call 610-821-6509. For Northampton County residents, call 610-250-1700. They will send you an application. There are three health managed care MA groups you can choose from, based on your health needs. (And also some groups, especially for those with addiction or mental health needs). They will send anyone found eligible information on these groups. You can then pick one to have as your health insurance group; you can change groups if you decide another is better. Anyone found eligible for Medical Assistance who has not chosen a group will be placed in a group (but you can still switch later). You will be able to get sent to you a list of doctors and dentists who take your group. To get information about the different health choices groups, you can call 610-437-6237 in Lehigh County or 610-923-5214 in Northampton County.

The Early Intervention (EI) Program of the Carbon Lehigh Intermediate Unit #21 (CLIU #21) is a federal and state public special education service provided to children ages three to five years of age who are experiencing a delay in their development. These children are evaluated and found to be eligible for special education services under the guidelines of the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) regulations. The CLIU #21 EI Program, operates under the direction of the PA Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL).

Early Intervention conducts child find activities to assist in identifying children in need of such services. Staff are made aware of a child who may be eligible for special education EI services through a referral from a person who has regular contact with the child - either a parent, relative, daycare or preschool teacher, physician, or other professional. Once a child is referred a screening occurs. Results of the screening determine the need for, and type of, evaluation that a child may require. If a child is determined to be eligible as a result of the evaluation, he or she will receive services that are both free and appropriate.

Federal Benefits

Head Start is a Federal program that promotes the school readiness of children from birth to age five from low-income families by enhancing their cognitive, social, and emotional development. Head Start programs provide a learning environment that supports children's growth in many areas such as language, literacy, and social and emotional development. Head Start emphasizes the role of parents as their child's first and most important teacher. These programs help build relationships with families that support family well-being and many other important areas.

Many Head Start programs also provide Early Head Start, which serves infants, toddlers, and pregnant women and their families who have incomes below the Federal poverty level.
